

Facts for
LITTLE READERS

Pollinators

- Food we eat depends on bees, butterflies, and other insects called pollinators.
- Plants need pollen to grow.
- Pollinators help plants grow by spreading pollen.

- Bees and butterflies eat nectar and pollen by using their long tongues.
- Butterflies and honey bees each have four wings.

Ma-z-z-z-z-z-e

Help the bee get to his flowers!

Directions: Follow the numbers from 1 to 20 in the maze to complete the puzzle.

