

Facts for
LITTLE READERS

Sheep

- Wool from sheep is used to make clothes.
- Sheep can make milk that is used for cheese.
- Sheep eat grass.

- A group of sheep is called a herd or a flock.
- Baby sheep are called lambs.
- There are 5.2 million sheep in the US.
- Sheep have 2 toes on each foot.

Counting Sheep

The sheep are trying to count in order, but some of them forgot what comes next!

Directions: Fill the black speech bubbles with the correct number

A grid of 20 sheep arranged in four rows of five. Each sheep has a speech bubble above it. The numbers in the speech bubbles are: Row 1: 1, blank, blank, 4, blank; Row 2: blank, blank, 8, blank, 10; Row 3: blank, blank, 13, blank, 15; Row 4: blank, 17, blank, 19, blank.